Thank you to all who have contributed to the Ohio Conference Education Department project to help children in Niger, Africa. There has been an excellent response! The campaign will continue thru April 2. You may take a blue sheet from the foyer table for more information. Please give donations to Al Schone or mark an offering envelope “Niger project”. Check donations should be made out to “ADRA”.

Today is the last day of the Religious Liberty Campaign. Donations may be marked as such and placed in the offering plate.

The Good Neighbor Thrift Store Expands! We praise the Lord for making the building next to our current store available to us.
